Item No.	Agenda	Details of Discussion	Action By:
2	Minutes of 27 th January 2020	Not discussed. To carry over to next meeting.	JS
3	Mexican Bingo Night	The Mexican Bingo night will be held at The Blacksmiths Saturday, 7 th March. JP confirmed costings based on 40 people at £3.49 per person to include nachos with chilli, bean feast and guacamole. To charge £10/ticket with extra games to be sold at £1 and possibility of selling dabbers – BF to look into. DG advised tequila would be the prize for main game wins with small prizes such as chocolate, cacti, etc for lines, corners, etc. A request for donations will be put out. All agreed to open the night out to children as well with no charge for one child per adult. DG advised that Gavin Carr has a speaker and all the equipment needed so all that is needed is for tickets to be sold!	BF
4	Promises Auction	ABr confirmed that the Promises auction on Friday 27 th March has 23 promises confirmed to date although several have mentioned possible donations. These will need to be confirmed so that catalogues can be completed and circulated in early March. The catalogue will sell advertising spaces within it to cover printing costs and raise further funds. Martin Pickup is kindly organising this.	ABr

5	Mothers' Day Stall	A possible date for this was set at Friday 20 th March. ABr will ask Lindsay Doubell if there are any potential presents left in the box (LD confirmed that she will run this.) Mrs Pemberton to include in the next newsletter.	ABr LD
6	Non-Uniform Day	DG suggested 3 rd April as a non-uniform day as a quick, easy fundraiser.
