

Key Words

Jesus	God the Son—believed to have come to Earth to show God's love
Gospel	The good news that Christians believe Jesus lived out —God loves his creation and wants a relationship with all people.
Disciples	The people who followed Jesus and saw him as a teacher. They gave up a lot to follow him.
Fisher of People	Jesus told the first disciples they would be fishers of people—they would tell others about the good news of the gospel
Miracles	Actions that Christians believe only God can do. Seen as examples of God's love.
The Greatest Commandment	Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.
The Second Commandment	Love your neighbour as yourself.

What kind of world did Jesus want?

Now...

I can make links between the stories of the calling of the first disciples and how Christians live today

I can explain how Jesus' action towards others impact how Christians live today

I can retell stories about Jesus' lives that show the gospel in action

I can explain in a simple way some of my own thinking about how I should live to show respect and loves to others